DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Who doesn't love a good heartwarming movie—especially during the Christmas season? The movie most watched during the holidays is Irving Berlin's White Christmas.

When we hear Bing's voice singing about a white Christmas, our imaginations conjure up memories of Christmases past. We remember that fat Christmas tree with tinsel that would melt if it touched the hot C7 bulbs. Do you remember the smell of freshly baked sugar cookies or anise squares? How about caroling through the neighborhood after shoveling the snow off the driveway? What about listening to the record player as it played the tunes of Percy Faith, Johnny Mathis, The Carpenters, or Nat King Cole? Whatever the reason, White Christmas remains dear to our celebration of this holiday. We feel warm and at peace, if only for a moment. Our cares get swept away... or swept under the rug while we wish for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

MICHAEL GREEN DIRECTOR

Christmas should bring a sense of warmth and peace. But for so many, it does not. The cares of life and not-so-good memories of the past don't engage the heart in making anything merry. Just take the current social, economic, and political climates, for instance. Folks have suffered great loss and discouragement. Many have lost hope in others, and even in God. It's not an easy world we live in. But at the right time... things could change. Things could suddenly take on new meaning. Life may even begin to make sense. What was lost can become gain. What was dead can now come to life.

So what am I getting at? Something that transcends nostalgic Christmas shows and memories. Something that creates gain out of loss and life from death. Someone with answers and ironclad promises. We sing about Him in O Come, All Ye Faithful. We tear up when He is mentioned as the child who didn't cry in Silent Night. And we imagine what that glorious night on the hillside must have been like when we sing O Holy Night. But He is much more than a seasonal song.

Christmas is more than a movie or a warm feeling. Christmas is a Person. He is at the center of our celebration. He came to earth "to seek and to save those who are lost." He came to give us life, and that life more abundantly. Though we may still dream of a white Christmas—in Jesus, dreams come true. Every day. All year. He is the Dream Giver and Dream Fulfiller—and more importantly, the Life Saver. To many, He remains a simple Christmas carol, but to us at Poiema Arts, and to billions like us, He is and always will be the greatest Gift ever given to any man or woman. More than a seasonal movie, Jesus gives us a reason to live and hope for a brighter day.

From Poiema, we pray that you have a memorable Christmas with your loved ones and those you hold dear. And "may all your Christmases be white."

Merry Christmas.

USING THEIR GIFTS FOR GOD'S GLORY

Sarah Parker

Matthew Parker

Sarah and Matthew have always been encouraged by my sister and brother-in-law to use their gifts for theatre and their love of music for God's glory. I am so proud of how they reflect Christ in all they do. God has given every human being a gift or talent to use for His purposes: "As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace" (1 Peter 4:10).

A PRAYER FOR YOU...

Father, we thank You for every person You have brought into this place.

You see each heart, each story, each hidden battle.
Nothing about their life is a surprise to You, and nothing is too broken for You to heal.

For those who walked in with heavy minds, weighed down by anxiety, fear, or confusion — Lord, bring Your peace that goes beyond understanding.

For those carrying grief, heartbreak, or loneliness — wrap them in Your love, even if they do not yet know Your name.

For the ones fighting depression, hopelessness, or thoughts of giving up — breathe new life into their spirit and whisper that there is a future, and that it's found in You.

For those struggling with identity, purpose, or self-worth — remind them that they were created on purpose, with purpose, by a God who calls them valuable and loved no matter what people say.

For anyone weary from pain in their body, sickness, addiction, or cycles they can't break — Jesus, we declare freedom, healing, and deliverance in Your name.

And for every person who has been hurt by religion, rejected by people, or taught to fear You instead of knowing You —
Lord, reveal who You really are:
Not a distant judge, but a Savior who came close, who loves deeply, who restores fully.

Tonight, we break off every lie, heaviness, every voice of shame, every chain of bondage, every attack of the enemy in Jesus' name.

May this play be more than entertainment — let it be an encounter and where seeds of truth are planted.

Jesus, whether people walked in doubting You, curious about You, running from You, or already in love with You — meet them right where they are.
Let them leave different than they came, not because of a stage, but because You were in the room.

We give You all the glory.
In Jesus' name, Amen.
