DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Welcome to a premier event for Raleigh - Disney's NEWSIES. What a time we have had putting this show together. From intense weekend dance rehearsals to late night tech rehearsals, we have grown and united as a family to give you, our audience, the very best we have to offer.

Where do we come from? From all over the greater Raleigh area - and even as far as Fuquay and Pittsboro. What makes our company so unique and successful? Our emphasis is on the individual and their experience - starting at auditions and continuing to the final bow. People are what POIEMA ARTS are all about. While we strive to produce quality, family-friendly community arts, the heart of who we are is each actor, each technician, every director and support staff. In a world that's continuing to preach and practice selfishness, we aim to preach and practice selflessness.

MICHAEL GREEN
DIRECTOR

Poiema Arts is in pursuit of property, as you may have heard. Our desire is to purchase and renovate the current property we are performing in - right here at IMAGINX. It's important to us and the region that we have a place to call home...a place where the arts can flourish and teaching and training occur on a very professional level. We want to reach those with a unique set of goals and desires to perform and to grow in stature and maturity. But there is so much more.....

...Big plans, big dreams, big outcomes. Performers and directors have, at the very core of who they are, a strong desire to communicate, and communicate effectively. Communicate what? Unconditional love and acceptance, faith, strong family values, restoration, healing, encouragement, and so much more. And we are just getting started. Join us in our pursuit of vision. Please visit us at www.poiemaac.com to find out more regarding Poiema Arts and why we exist in this area. And please consider sewing a gift of any amount into Poiema Art's outreach endeavor - purchasing our home and guaranteeing many more individuals a chance to belong to something Greater.

Enjoy the show!

Michael Green
Executive Director
