DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Welcome to Raleigh's premiere performance of Lloyd C. Douglas' THE ROBE. Originally released on film in 1953 (starring Richard Burton and Jean Simmons), this Academy Award nominated classic has been enjoyed by millions since. Why is The Robe so compelling? Was it the actors' stellar performances? Was it the authentic costuming and sets? Was it the unique story-telling? I could say, "yes," to any of the above questions, but it wouldn't be completely accurate.

MICHAEL GREEN
DIRECTOR

It is my personal belief that man is born with a drive to know that which is outside of himself. How was the world created? Why was I created? Was there a Designer? What happens after life ceases for every man and woman? Essentially, all man's question can be summed up in one question: "Is there a God, and what is His name?" At one time in our lives, we all asked if God was real and "does He have an interest in me?"

We, at Poiema Arts, have discovered the answer to that question and every other question. As simple, yet complex as it may seem, the answer is found in the real person of Jesus. He answers all of life's questions. That sounds over simplistic to the logical thinker and too much like a fairytale to the realist. The truth will never rest within humanity. The truth will always be found in the Divine. Jesus declared Himself to be "the way, THE TRUTH, and the life." In order to have life, one must know the way and the truth. He is the way, and truth is found in Him. Exclusively? Yes.

This revelation, when embraced, sets our lives on a different path. One that will cause us to experience the supernatural God on every level. Body, soul, and spirit. Ask yourself, "Why would millions of His followers throughout history give their lives through torture, murder, persecution, abandonment, and more for Someone who is the product of a man's imagination or superstition?" The point is, they wouldn't. They saw Something. They experienced Something. They all had their lives dramatically impacted by Someone. They encountered His true, undeniable presence. They experienced hope, love, meaning, and purpose. You can't make that up – even with the greatest and wildest imagination.

So what about today? What about now? Millions over the ages have had their questions answered quite profoundly. Today, you could receive your answers. Today could very well be what you have been waiting for all your life. Don't turn away. Ask the questions, but be still enough to wait for the reply. It will astound you. It will save you. He will turn your life into His Masterpiece (Ephesians 2:10). That is the truth worth dying for.
