DIRECTOR'S NOTE

The iconic ship, RMS TITANIC, was the pride of mankind. It was called the “unsinkable ship.” And to many, it was the god of the seas. At no time was there ever a grander ship. Nearly 11 stories high and as long as the Empire State Building is high. In this production of the hit Broadway musical, TITANIC, the builder, Thomas Andrews, recites the glory of this magnificent piece of engineering,

*In every age mankind attempts to fabricate great works
At once magnificent and impossible...
On desert sands, from mountains of stone a pyramid!
From flying buttresses alone a wall of light!
A chapel ceiling screaming one man's ecstasy!
Miracles them all! China's endless wall...
Stonehenge, the Parthenon, the Duomo, the aqueducts of Rome
We did not attempt to make with mammoth blocks of stone a giant pyramid
Nor gothic walls that radiate with light...
Our task was to dream upon and then create a floating city!
A human metropolis...A complete civilization!
Sleek! And fast!
At once a poem and the perfection of physical engineering...*

MICHAEL GREEN
DIRECTOR

Man thought he had created a floating city that God, Himself, couldn't even sink. The tragic events of April 15, 1912 will live as one of the greatest human tragedies of all time. What started out as a marvel of man's ingenuity ended on the bottom of the Atlantic. A lesson learned? Not so much, unfortunately.

Throughout history man has always found himself in competition with God. Man thinks himself wiser, stronger, truer, more worthy of praise..... But just as the TITANIC left its berth in Southampton, England and ended in a watery grave, man's life begins and ends much the same. It might not be a tragedy that brings us to our graves, but the grave should not be the end of any journey. The Author and Perfect One offers us all an alternative. Rather than exalting ourselves and our works above the God Who is the Creator of all that is, we have the opportunity to become something more than mere mortal men. We have been offered a place in His Kingdom as His sons and daughters that lasts forever. We recognize Him as our Lord, Creator, and Savior.

It's not what is in our hands to create that is of any value, but real value is you and me in His hands allowing Him to create through us. “Floating cities” will always sink. God's Kingdom knows no end - even after death. We, as a cast and crew of TITANIC, invite you to join us on a voyage much greater than any man can conceive. It is an eternal voyage that doesn't begin at a port, but with a person, Jesus Christ. He will give you safe passage. Guaranteed!

Enjoy the show!

The director would like to thank two wonderful musicians for their help with our sound design for the show:
